Open Issues

The historical map has been updated with 62 sites with historical pictures in the digital format. Business list is being updated also.

Mural is being completed. Ideas were shared for an unveiling of the mural. Maybe as part of the annual meeting. It was decided to do it on Sunday, October 30 at 3 p.m with refreshments to be served.

Kimberly Reckner moved with a second by Lydia Wagy to purchase a drop box for the Holiday in the Park. Motion carried. We have received $1500 in donations so far. Groups to work the weekend schedule so far will be the Boy Scouts and Steinmetz 4-H Club. Signage (sponsors, entrance and exit) is needed and promoting strategies.

Boat Parade sponsors are being solicited. May need new signage. Kimberly Reckner will be doing the flyers and work on a chair for Santa. The elves will need a hat. Wagon ride location will be moved to in front of Schaefer Auto for safety reasons. Small Business Saturday supplies have been ordered. Ruth Jones will be asked to do the Santa Letters again.
